FEEDBACK POLICY

Feedback plays a pivotal role in the development of the institution. The APMC has been assigned the duty to collect the feedback from various stakeholders and present the report.

Academic Planning & Monitoring Committee (APMC) collects feedback on curriculum from various stakeholders like –students, professionals from other institutes, alumni members of the college, various employers who hire passed graduates and from the faculty members of the institution as prescribed in the NAAC. Continuous feedback and changes in the policies are a must for an educational institution in this era of modernization.

FEED BACK SAMPLES ARE COLLECTED FROM

- 1) Students of the institution
- 2) Teachers of the institution
- 3) Alumni members
- 4) Employers
- 5) Professionals

Feedback from student is collected towards the end of every year or after their University examination. Student feedback is collected from various students from first BDS to Internship.

Feedback from teachers or faculty is collected annually from the teaching staff and data is analyzed.

Feedback from alumni is collected annually with a curiosity to know whether the curriculum has helped them to render best service to the society.
